Elevate ELD Instruction Grades K-12

Turn instructional practices into ELPAC task supportive strategies. Learn about the ELPAC task types and the corresponding instructional resources you can use with your students in order to advance their English proficiency.

Please note: this is NOT an ELPAC administration and scoring training

- Deconstruct some of the expectations of the ELPAC's 4 Domains.
- Identify the knowledge, skills, and abilities needed by English Learners.
- Focus on instructional practices aligned with the ELD standards necessary to support English Learners in their designated and integrated classrooms.
- Analyze text types that are often assessed.
- Align your instruction with strategies to best support the English Learner.
- Create teaching opportunities that infuse language practices into daily student interactions to have them listening, speaking, reading, and writing in English.
