CA English Language Development Standards Training

California's 2012 ELD Standards, along with the California Standards and the Next Generation Science Standards, "are part of a national movement to ensure K–12 students, including English learners, gain the necessary literacy and mathematical understanding and practices required in 21st-century higher education and workplace communities."

Join us for this two day professional development opportunity in which you will:

- Build background and rationale for the new ELD Standards
- Learn about the intent and difference between designated and integrated ELD
- Take away strategies that can be used for both designated and integrated ELD
