

Dual Language Education Forum

What Leaders Need to Know

Dual language programs deliver results! The passage of Proposition 58 offers promise, and has opened up significant opportunities for California's learners by widening access to 21st century skills, promoting global citizenship, enriching multilingual learning, and building capacities to fully engage and communicate with diverse audiences.

- Interested in learning more about dual language programs?
- Exploring the possibility of initiating dual language programs within the next few years?
- Wondering where to begin, or which questions to ask?

Launching a dual language program requires team knowledge building, strategic planning, and coordination from a systems lens. Kathryn Lindholm-Leary and Rosa Molina will speak to:

- Dual language research
- Program models
- Systems and structures
- Fundamentals of launching dual language programs
- Critical components required for effective implementation of the Association of Two-Way & Dual

Language Education

Dr. Lindholm-Leary and Mrs. Molina are widely regarded experts in the field of two-way/dual language and other bilingual programs, grades PS-12, in California and across the United States. They each come with over 30 years of experience in the area of dual language education, and offer a compelling combination of historical perspective, research, leadership, and implementation practice. They frequently collaborate to offer sites and districts the guidance leaders seek to launch and sustain dual learning programs.
