

Salmonids in the Classroom

2018 Teacher Workshops

Salmonids in the Classroom is a part of a free, statewide program through CDFW to improve student understanding, appreciation, and stewardship of California's salmon and trout. Educators will receive eggs and students will watch them grow into small fish before releasing them into the wild. Join us at one of our FREE workshops to learn how your classroom can get involved and bring the outdoors in!

Visalia Workshop October 29, 5-8:30 pm Tulare County Office of Education Sequoia Room 7000 Doe Ave. Visalia, CA 93291	Fresno Workshop October 15, 5-8:30 pm Woodward Park Regional Library Meeting Room 944 E. Perrin Ave. Fresno, CA 93720
Bakersfield Workshop November 6, 5-8:30 pm Kern County Superintendent of Schools City Centre - Room 1A 1300 17th Street Bakersfield, CA 93301	San Luis Obispo Workshop October 8, 5-8:30 pm San Luis Coastal Unified District Office Building B, Room B3 1500 Lizzie Street San Luis Obispo, CA 93401

Light dinner provided

Project WILD Aquatic training & curriculum included

Please RSVP by emailing R4SalmonidsClassroom@wildlife.ca.gov

For additional program information, please visit www.wildlife.ca.gov/CAEP/