Transitional Kindergarten Professional Learning Community
PreTK-1st Grade
2019-2020

Professional Learning Community (TK PLC)
This five session PLC provides an opportunity for collaboration, sharing of TK resources, problem solving, discussion of developmentally appropriate curriculum and implementation of instructional strategies focusing on the preschool learning foundations and the Kindergarten California Standards.

This year the PLC will also feature:
- A book study on the topic of setting up a “Writer’s Workshop” model with beginning writers. Participants will receive instruction in strategies to implement immediately and will bring student work to subsequent learning sessions for shared learning and strategic next step planning.
- Participants will also have opportunities for cross content resource sharing with fellow teachers.
- New members welcome at any time throughout the year.
- Open to all preschool to 1st grade educators.
- One unit of Professional Development credit upon completion of all 5 sessions and learning portfolio.

Participants will receive a copy of A Teacher’s Guide to Getting Started with Beginning Writers by Katie Wood Ray with Lisa Cleaveland. Click below to download a Pre-publication sample. http://bit.ly/2Z8ljma
