INSPIRING STUDENTS
 POETRY
OUT LOUD
National Recitation Contest

About the Contest - Open to all public and private schools, Poetry Out Loud inspires high school students to discover and appreciate poetry through a combination of memorization, performance, and competition. The program helps students master public speaking skills, build self-confidence, and improve English fluency and comprehension. It also supports the California State Standards in English Language Arts. The Poetry Out Loud program begins with classroom and school-wide competitions, with winners advancing to county, state, and national levels. Poetry Out Loud is open to all Tulare County high school students.

High School Registration Deadline: November 3, 2017
School Finalists must be submitted by January 17, 2018
