Parent and Community Engagement: Connecting Through the Arts

Looking for new ways to actively engage parents and community members in your school culture?

Try the Visual and Performing Arts!

Discover how to leverage the visual and performing arts as a method for improving and expanding school connectedness. Participants will explore creative ways to design and implement engagement goals for state and federal programs. This hands-on workshop will showcase a variety of strategies to actively engage parents, community members, and other key stakeholders with all facets of the school culture.

This interactive workshop will also highlight engagement resources from the California Department of Education and the California State PTA.

Workshop Alignment:

- California's Family Engagement Framework
- Tulare County Arts Master Plan
- Local Control Funding Formula Priorities 1-8
- Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) and Title I

*An Educational Resource Services
Professional Development
Opportunity*
