The questions and activities below are designed to inspire students and families to connect with the arts in fun and engaging ways. Using the Artistic Processes as a guide, these ideas provide a framework for arts learning at home and in the community.

For More Information Contact: Kate Stover – kate.stover@tcoe.org

Wise Words

"That's the great secret of creativity. You treat ideas like cats: you make them follow you."

- Ray Bradbury

Reflect on It: What do you do when you have an idea? Share with a family member or friend.

Let's Explore!

Spend several minutes looking closely at the painting to the left.

What do you notice?
What do you wonder?

Write down your ideas and talk about them with your family or friends.

Discover More on Page Two...

Title: Idleness
Artist: John William Godward, (1900)
Location: Private Collection
License: Public Domain
The Artistic Processes

Recall the artwork you looked at earlier as you explore the artistic processes through the questions and activities below.

Respond - Explore and Understand
- What objects do you notice in the painting? Can you find both animate (living) and inanimate (non-living) objects?
- How does the artist use color and space to draw your eye into the scene?

Connect - Relate to the Art
- Does the setting seem real or imaginary? Why?
- How does the woman in the painting feel? What clues about her mood can you find?

Create - Make Art
- Step into the painting and look around. What else do you see? Draw or paint a picture of the scene.
- Imagine you are the kitten in the painting. Write a poem, play, or story from that perspective.

Present and Perform - Share Your Art
- Share your creations with your family or friends.
- Take a moment to tell them what you discovered.

---

Focus Artwork

Title: Idleness
Artist: John William Godward, (1900)
Location: Private Collection
License: Public Domain

For Past Editions Visit: