Book Clubs Grounded in Social-Emotional Learning

Are you looking to connect with other educators who want the very best for each and every one of their students? Consider joining one of our book clubs!

No matter which title you choose, you will be able to come and enjoy deep, rich conversations with peers as we process the ideas presented to us by each of these very special authors. We will test ideas in our classrooms and on our campuses and come back together to reflect on the application of theory.

This experience reveals the true purpose of gathering a book club to connect with each other and share our learning through the exploration of the concepts and ideas in a text.

Audience: all educators!

Books: The first 20 registrants will receive a free copy of the book selected. Books supplied are ONLY for Tulare County registrants.
